“Customer service is an attitude...not a department.”
- Mo Hardy

COURSE OVERVIEW

To really understand what separates excellent service from average service, all you need is a line. That’s right...a simple line. Excellent service is above the line, and average service is below the line.

While we each have a personal line by which we judge customer service success, there are some behaviors that are undeniably above the line, including problem resolution, a customer care mindset, empathy and resiliency. How we deliver on these behaviors creates a “feeling of service”, whether good or bad, and that feeling can impact your relationship with the customer, the company’s reputation, and ultimately your company’s success.

This course focuses on 4 key skills that are linked to “Above the Line” service.

- Problem Resolution – approaching your customer’s request in a consultative, solution-focused way
- Customer Care Mindset – delivering excellent service requires an “ALL IN” mentality and genuine care for your customer
- Empathy – picking up the emotional cues of others and responding appropriately
- Resiliency – bouncing back from a tough customer encounter and managing emotions in an effort to respond instead of react

Through skill development and real-world application, each “Above the Line” skill will cultivate a renewed spirit of service excellence and give your team members elevated tools to deliver “Above the Line” service with each interaction.

“It takes months to find a customer and seconds to lose them.”

"The highest form of knowledge is empathy."
- George Eliot

Customized with your real-world scenarios & designed to meet your desired outcomes.

Compassion Fatigue

COURSE OVERVIEW

Research has shown that frequent exposure to the hardships of others can lead one to become detached, apathetic and numb to the feelings of others. This is known as Compassion Fatigue, which is a condition characterized by a gradual lessening of compassion over time.

The two most common reactions amongst workers who begin suffering from Compassion Fatigue are cynicism and emotional exhaustion. Cynicism is characterized by a general distrust of others and their motives. Emotional exhaustion leaves you feeling drained and tired.

This creates employees who are about as caring as a robot. Obviously, having robots interacting with your clients isn't a recipe for customer satisfaction. In this course, we will identify the warning signs of Compassion Fatigue and explore the techniques to rebound and build resiliency.

When pockets of Compassion Fatigue emerge, employee engagement and morale are negatively impacted. By using techniques involving self-care and reflection, expressing compassion is no longer a burden. This paves the way for your employees to demonstrate a genuine understanding and have an empathetic connection with your customers.

48% of US workforce experiences high levels of personal distress that is directly associated to their job duties.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Understand the importance of empathy

Recognize the warning signs

Build and maintain resiliency

Realize that everyone has a story

Improve self-care

Use the tools to recover

BUSINESS OUTCOMES

Improved Employee Morale

Improved Customer Satisfaction

Reduced Employee Absenteeism

Enhanced Company Reputation

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Any department or team looking to build their empathy muscle and improve customer and team relationships.

Bottom line, if you think you have a team of robots, this course is for you!

Essential Refreshers

COURSE OVERVIEW

Has it been at least 12-18 months since the initial Customer Service Essentials or Sales Essentials course was delivered? If so, ideally it's time to review, refresh and enrich some of the real-time communication skills initially taught in either or both Essentials courses.

In Customer Service Essentials Refresher we take a deeper dive into some of the more challenging communication techniques that are required to provide next level service. In Sales Essentials Refresher we take it to the next level and further explore all that goes into the art of developing a great offer to ensure that the "pitch" is spot on.

These Refresher sessions are highly customized and most effective when clients provide examples of their specific challenges, and if possible also provide recorded calls to use as a "study" for how conversations could have been improved.

Because people learn by doing, this session is all about individual activity, group exercises, role-play and self-reflection. All of this helps to create or reinforce good habits that will help transform every interaction into a positive and successful one.

"Positivity is like a muscle; keep exercising it and it becomes a habit."
- Natalie Massenet

Field Customer Service Essentials

"The customer's perception is your reality."
- Kate Zabriskie

COURSE OVERVIEW

Being easy to do business with must be a cornerstone element of every business. This takes on new meaning for the technicians, line people, auditors and other positions your company has out in the field. The exposure field employees have to customers is unique because field reps are always "on". A service technician can be driving to the next customer and everyone who sees him or her during that drive will form an opinion of your organization.

In this workshop, we turn the switch on for your field reps to Be GREAT at all times. Be GREAT is a quick and powerful acronym that defines how to be the best for the customer as well as the company. Even the smallest interactions have a powerful impact on a company's reputation. Be GREAT equips your field employees with key behaviors and interaction techniques to show a customer-first focus.

The Be GREAT acronym stands for...

- Greeting: Research reports that the first impression sticks in the minds of your customer. This section of the training hones in on the first impression being positive.
- Respect: Respect and rapport techniques are entwined. These techniques create rapport through respectful actions.
- Empathy: Expressing empathy can calm nervous customers and create a connection that helps customers be receptive and cooperative.
- Accountability: Taking ownership even during difficult customer situations is doable with these techniques.
- Talk: The words we choose as well as our voice tone and body language communicate the full message of what we are saying.

By training both internal team members and the team out in the field, your organization will have a powerful, positive and cohesive brand.

"The strength of the team is each individual member. The strength of each member is the team."
- Phil Jackson

 Customized with your real-world scenarios & designed to meet your desired outcomes.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Practice behaviors that instill confidence and comfort in customers

Identify and examine their interaction points with customers

BUSINESS OUTCOMES

Reduction in customer complaints

Increase in customer satisfaction

Strengthen the company's desired reputation

Create more enjoyment for both customers and field reps

The Platinum Rule of Service

"Customer satisfaction is worthless. Customer loyalty is priceless."
- Jeffrey Gitomer

COURSE OVERVIEW

"Treat others the way you want to be treated" is a phrase we're probably all familiar with. Commonly referred to as "The Golden Rule," this guiding principle reminds us to treat others with kindness, respect, and consideration—because that's what we want for ourselves.

Great, right? Well, there is one catch: everyone is different. This is where The Golden Rule has its limitations. While you might want one thing, your peer may want something completely different. In acknowledging and validating our individual uniqueness, "The Platinum Rule" was born.

The Platinum Rule is about "treating people how they want to be treated." This is an important distinction because this shift in mindset allows us to consider the wants and needs of others rather than putting ourselves at the forefront. Built on the foundation of DISC Behavior Skills and Assessment, we've designed training to equip your team with relevant and applicable skills to elevate their level of service and meet customers where they are.

The focused topics of this training program include the following:

- Learning how to identify the customer's behavioral style
- Adapting to the customer's pace, phrasing, and pitch
- Understanding the different ways to help retain your customers
- Solving the customer's problem in their own vocabulary

"Get closer than ever to your customers. So close that you tell them what they need well before they realize it themselves."
- Steve Jobs

Customized with your real-world scenarios & designed to meet your desired outcomes.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Understand that "The Platinum Rule" is a wonderful gift you can give your customers

Discover your style using DISC for Customer Service

Comfortable identifying the different behavior styles

Learn ways to adapt your pace, phrasing, and pitch to the customer

Understand customers' varying styles in order to meet their needs

"It is not your customer's job to remember you; it is your obligation and responsibility to make sure they don't have the chance to forget you."
- Patricia Fripp

Bonfire's Mission
To improve lives and transform relationships through positive communication and helping people be their best, on purpose, every time.

ABOUT BONFIRE TRAINING

Igniting Real Change

We believe in people...and in their unlimited potential after great training.

We have been building on this belief for nearly 35 years, focusing on the human element of communication while incorporating business functions and technology. We bring this focus and this belief to all of our courses, and our clients see the difference that our training makes in their people, their culture and their customers.

So....Why "Bonfire"?

After decades of success as PhonePRO, we rebranded to Bonfire Training. We decided on the name because a bonfire is a bright, inviting circle where people gather to communicate, have fun and where they feel comfortable sharing ideas. Around a bonfire, the sparks draw your gaze upward, the heat and light are welcoming and the circle keeps everyone connected. It's a positive, relatable image that makes everyone feel included. And that's how we feel about our training – it's for everyone and the skills light up their potential.

Though our name and logos have changed, our mission and values remain the same – we are here to help people be their best, on purpose, every time. And because we offer programs that are about Real Learning, Real Fun, and Real Results, we have clients all around the world that return to us year after year for continued education and training. For those of you who have stayed with us through the years, Thank You! And to our new clients, Welcome to Bonfire Training!

OUR CORE VALUES

Consider Team
Before Self

Be Easy to Work with

Create Positive Energy

Practice What We Teach

REAL LEARNING

*Exceptional, enlightened training sets us apart.
And it will set you apart too.*

REAL FUN

*Truly effective training is enjoyable and fun;
your team will be fired up in no time!*

REAL RESULTS

Our holistic approach produces long-term results that keep the fire burning.

WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT?

Customization is one of the things that sets us apart. After an onsite observation day at your location, we incorporate your real-life scenarios and examples throughout the training. This paves the way for your team to more easily relate to and learn from the training. This deep dive approach to your company's challenges and strengths is why our trainers are often asked at the end of a workshop, "How long have you worked here?"

Bonfire's course design and delivery techniques are based on the principle that adults "learn by doing" and what they learn and retain is also related to the amount of fun they are having in the process! Based on that idea, our courses incorporate humor and fun along with solid, professional techniques.

Quite simply, our trainers are the best in the business! They facilitate our courses using an interactive and hands-on approach that incorporates the best interests of both the client and the individual team members they are working with. They have a passion for helping companies deliver the best possible training and to help create an overall "service culture" that will remain long after the training has been completed.

With our Sustain the Training: CSE workshop, your managers and supervisors will learn to reinforce what was learned in the classroom to make sure the training techniques become a daily habit. We believe that "Training is an Event" and "Learning is a Process", so this leadership program will go a long way in setting your company up for long-term success!
